

Hotels, Food, and Entertainment

HOTELS

(Recommended)

Fairfield Inn - newest, closest to food,
Holiday Inn Express - newly remodeled
Hampton Inn - quiet, farthest from freeway

The other hotels in the area - may be cheaper, but are old, well-used, dirty, next to a busy noisy freeway, and used by truckers (diesel trucks running outside your window)

FOOD

Good food:

Brick 29 - locally sourced, comfort food reinvented - Nampa
Orchard House - in the country, leave room for pie! - Nampa/Marsing
Outback - NOW with an extensive local wines list - Nampa
Garage Cafe - Friday Prime Rib Night - homemade soups - Notus

Meat:

Indian Creek Steakhouse - Steaks cooked the old western way - Caldwell

Burgers & Beer

Boise Fry Company - Bison burgers, Fries of different Idaho potato, Local Beer

Italian:

Gino's - don't see it on the menu, made to order - Meridian

Pizza & Beer

Messenger Pizza and PreFunk Bar - back door attached - rotating selection of local only beer - bring the pizza into the bar.

Mexican:

Enrique's - not a chain, wide variety of dishes - Kuna

Breakfast coffee

Flying M Garage - internet access, good coffee, simple breakfast menu - Nampa
Greenleaf Cafe - clean, friendly, and close - homemade pies - Greenleaf

ENTERTAINMENT

(late afternoon/evening)

Warhawk Museum – They fly their displays, Idaho Aviation with a World War II focus - Nampa Airport

Winery Tours - On-line maps available <http://www.visitidaho.org/wineries/> - Southeast of Nampa & Caldwell

River Rafting - 2-4 hour exciting floats - see Paul

1/2-day drive tours - through the mountains and along the rivers & lakes – to historic mining towns, natural hot springs, fire lookouts – see Paul

Drive-in Movie Theatre – Parma Motor-Vu - <http://www.parmamotorvu.com>
Several other nice, new, clean theaters exist in Nampa - even a eat-in movie theater (Northern Lights Cinema Grill).
